

Appointed incumbent going after his first election

Redlands Daily Facts

08/13/2007 01:02:19 PM PDT

REDLANDS - Pete Aguilar was appointed to the City Council in 2006 when Susan Pepler left office. This is his first election.

"What it's important to me is a strong community that is sustainable and has a solid financial footing. with strong finances can address quality of life issues," he said. "I'm committed to continuing the job and making progress along the lines we've made over the last couple of months."

Name: Pete Aguilar

Age: 28

Family: Wife Alisha and 18-month-old son Palmer

Resided in Redlands: Life long in Inland Empire, and last 10 years in Redlands.

Education: Bachelor of science in government and bachelor of science in business administration from the University of Redlands. Graduated in 2001.

Occupation: Vice president and director of governmental affairs, Arrowhead Credit Union

Community activities: Council member since April 2006; past chairman of the city of Redlands Housing Commission; past campaign manager, San Bernardino County Taxpayers for Traffic Relief (Yes on Measure I); former interim director, Inland Empire Office of the Governor; past co-president of the board of directors, San Bernardino Area Habitat for Humanity, located in Redlands; board member of YMCA of the East Valley; member of Redlands Community Hospital Community Advisory Board and board member of the University of Redlands Alumni Board.