

Gil wants four more years

Redlands Daily Facts

08/15/2007 03:56:12 PM PDT

Gilberto Gil has served on the Redlands City Council for eight years.

He is a north Redlander whose priorities include supporting local youth programs and promoting public safety through support of the police and fire departments.

"I would be honored to continue to serve as your representative on the Redlands City Council and would appreciate your vote once again," Gil said in his candidate statement.

Name: Gilberto Gil

Age: 47

Family: Grandfather and one son

Resided in Redlands: more than 46 years

Education: Graduated from Redlands High School; earned associate's degree from Crafton Hills College and attended California State University, San Bernardino.

Occupation: Adult parole officer with Department of Corrections.

Community activities: Northside Impact Committee; co-founder annual César Chávez Scholarship Breakfast; Member Annual Latino/Latina Leadership Awards; chairman Navidad En El Barrio (Christmas Program); member of Parole Agents Association of California and California Correctional Peace Officers Association.